

LULLABY RESIDENCES

Marketing Intelligence Brief

The Project

Lullaby Residences — 7920 Byron Ave, Miami Beach, FL 33141

Building

4 duplex apartments in a 4-story building + parking

Unit Size

181.2 m² total per unit (1,950 sq ft)

118.5 m² interior (1,275 sq ft)

62.5 m² terraces (672 sq ft) — 34% of total

Layout

3 bedrooms, kitchen, dining, living room

Front terrace + back terrace + solarium

2 parking spaces per unit

Marketing Opportunity

- 34% terrace ratio is unmatched — no competitor offers this
- 2 parking spots = top differentiator for family buyers
- "Lullaby" name evokes calm, family, safety
- Pre-gentrification inflection point — early-buyer narrative
- AI assets can tell the story before construction finishes

The Unfair Advantage

Why this project wins — structural advantages no competitor can replicate

Product Gap

No direct competitor in this segment.

New construction in North Beach is either micro-studios (Ella) or ultra-luxury $9M+ (Ocean Terrace). Lullaby occupies the vacant medium/high-quality family duplex niche.

Terrace Premium

34% outdoor space ratio.

62.5m² of terraces per unit. No comparable product offers this. This is a direct pricing lever — market as "indoor-outdoor Miami lifestyle."

Rent Gap Signal

Modernized units in the area command $3,884/mo vs $2,262 for legacy units.

The pre-gentrification rent gap = immediate equity creation for early buyers.

Timing Wave

North Beach is pre-peak. Ocean Terrace delivers 2029. Ella tops off 2027.

By 2028 the area will be transformed. Lullaby captures the curve early.

The Location Story

North Beach — the last undervalued coastal neighborhood on Miami Beach

- Phase: EARLY TRANSFORMATION — prices still reflect "old" North Beach, not the incoming wave
- $2B+ in active development within 1-mile radius (Ocean Terrace, Ella, 7200 Collins, 72 Park)
- North Beach CRA — tax-increment financing reinvesting in streetscapes, parks, sea-level rise
- "Modern city is eating its way toward us" — leading edge of development wave from South Beach north
- 15-20 min from South Beach nightlife, 2 blocks from tranquil beach and parks

NEIGHBORHOOD SNAPSHOT

- 67% Hispanic/Latino — vibrant multicultural community
- Biscayne Beach Elementary: IB World School, 0.3 mi
- Tatum Park: directly adjacent at 8050 Byron Ave
- Oceanside Park: 28 acres, 2 blocks east + Bark Beach
- Daycare access: 9.8/10
- 24-hr bus Route 79 to Hialeah & South Beach

Persona 1: The International Family

Latin American family seeking Miami foothold

Profile

Affluent Latin American family with children. Cash buyers. Seeking safe investment + lifestyle upgrade.

Budget

$1.5M – $2.5M. Cash (70% of Miami luxury market is all-cash).

Key Selling Points

IB school 0.3mi walk • 2 parking spots • Family building • Safe neighborhood

Objection Handlers

"Is it safe?" → Tatum Park adjacent, family neighborhood, school within sight

"Will values rise?" → 27% YoY luxury price/SF growth in North Beach

Marketing Angle

"Give your family the Miami Beach life — before everyone else discovers it"

Persona 2: The Down-shifting Professional

Empty nesters from NYC, Chicago, SF

Profile

Empty nesters / professionals selling high-cost-market condos. Seeking quality of life + tax benefits.

Budget

$1.2M – $2.0M. Often condo-equity from NYC/SF sales.

Key Selling Points

No state income tax • 15-20 min to South Beach dining • 34% terrace = indoor-outdoor living

Objection Handlers

"Is there enough to do?" → 15-min to South Beach, Bal Harbour Shops 5 min

Marketing Angle

"The best Miami address you haven't heard of yet — and that's the point"

Persona 3: The Smart Money Investor

Real estate investors targeting pre-gentrification plays

Profile

Sophisticated investors buying 1-2 units for rental portfolio or short-term appreciation.

Budget

$1.2M – $2.5M per unit. Looking for pre-construction pricing.

Key Selling Points

Only 4 units = scarcity • New construction premium (12-18%) • Low-density in upzoning corridor

Objection Handlers

"Is the rent growth real?" → Modern units get 72% rent premium over legacy stock

Marketing Angle

"The last great entry point on Miami Beach. Before North Beach becomes the next Surfside."

The Narrative

Three storytelling pillars for every marketing asset

PILLAR 1

The Last Quiet Place on Miami Beach

North Beach is the final coastal neighborhood on Miami Beach that still feels like a real community. While South Beach parties and Mid-Beatowers up, Lullaby offers something rare: a place where families live, kids bike to school, and weekends involve the beach and a park — not a velvet rope.

The "Lullaby" name says it all. This is where Miami comes to sleep well.

PILLAR 2

Before the Wave Crests

Every great Miami neighborhood had a window before the world discovered it. South of Fifth in 2005. Mid-Beach in 2015. North Beach is NOW.

With $2B+ in development breaking ground within a mile, the transformation is already in motion. Lullaby offers entry before prices fully repriced. Not a gamble — reading the map correctly.

Space That Lives Differently

181m² per unit. 62m² of that is terrace. Most new construction in Miami maximizes interior square footage. Lullaby prioritizes how you actually live.

Front terrace for coffee. Back terrace for dinner. Solarium for year-round entertaining. Two parking spaces because Miami life requires a car.

This is the duplex that understands Miami living.

Content Strategy

AI-generated marketing assets to bring Lullaby to life before construction

Architectural Renders

AI-generated photorealistic exterior + interior renders. Style: warm Miami Modern (MiMo) with tropical landscaping. Use: website hero, brochures, social ads.

Neighborhood Guide

AI-curated interactive map: school ratings, parks, transit, dining, 15-min radius to South Beach hotspots. Use: landing page lead magnet.

Data Ammunition

Numbers to weaponize in marketing copy, ads, and buyer conversations

MARKET MOMENTUM

- North Beach avg condo price/SF: $858 (+25.3% YoY)
- North Beach luxury sales: +50% YoY (Q4 → Q4)
- North Beach luxury median price/SF: $1,165 (+27% YoY)
- Miami Beach overall median: $802,500 (+14.6% YoY)
- Cash transactions: 70% of all sales (80%+ for >$10M)
- New construction premium: 12-18% vs legacy buildings

UNLOCKED POTENTIAL

- Rent gap: modern units get $3,884/mo vs $2,262 legacy (72% premium)
- 33.8% discount to city-wide 1BR rent — room to grow
- Population density: 15,774/sq mi — tightening supply on barrier island
- 63% renter-occupied — conversion potential for owner-occupied product
- 23% vacancy (seasonal/investor) — liquid market
- $2B+ development pipeline in 1-mile radius

Key Selling Points

The elevator pitch — every marketing asset must hit these

UNIQUE PRODUCT

4 duplex units only. No competing product at this price-quality-family intersection in North Beach.

34% TERRACE RATIO

62.5m² terraces per unit. Front, back + solarium. Outdoor living is the Miami lifestyle.

2 PARKING SPACES

Rare in North Beach. Family buyers and car owners pay a premium for this convenience.

SCHOOL ADJACENT

Biscayne Beach Elementary (IB World School, A-rated) is 0.3mi walk. Safest school run.

BEACH 2 BLOCKS

Oceanside Park (28 acres) + Bark Beach. Walk to the beach without South Beach crowds.

PRE-GENTRIFICATION

Entry before full repricing. 27% YoY luxury price/SF growth. The data says this is the moment.
